Quarry stench may be alleviated

By Hank Sanders

The Thornton Reservoir is known for its wide and winding provides, loamy banks, and large overhanging oak trees. "It's a great place for fishing and bird watching," said节水器。 "But it comes at a price. The odor..."

The reservoir is lined with a series of small ponds and wetlands, creating a habitat for a variety of wildlife. "We've seen everything from ducks to deer," said the local wildlife expert. "But it's the stench that really stands out."...

Blue Island eyes bright future

By Carol Flynn

On a recent Sunday afternoon, families enjoyed a children's cinema at the Lyric Theater in Blue Island. The theater features state-of-the-art sound and visuals, and the movie was a hit with the kids. "We've been trying to bring more family-friendly activities to Blue Island," said the mayor. "This is just one of the many ways we're working to make our city more welcoming to all."...

Richards, Naperville Central grad offers advice for success

Donna Vlekoy

Before they head off to college, their senior portraits of winners for incoming freshmen, but their work must be applied to the across the age spectrum. "I'm a graduate of Naperville Central College, Naperville, Illinois. I study finance and political science at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign."

Accomplishments

John: "The curriculum can be quite challenging, but the wealth of resources that are available can be a huge help. I really enjoyed the classes I took in the psychology department."

Extracurriculars

Meghan: "I'm involved in clubs and sports. It's a great way to meet people and make friends. My favorite is the track team. I've been interested in running since I was a kid."

Austin: "I'm really looking forward to my senior year. I'm excited to see what my future holds."

Turn to Advice, Page 2

Turn to Photos, Page 2
Future

Business: "Buying the theater was a personal business decision rather than a business decision for the theater," said the owner. He added that the decision to close was made after a series of discussions with the board of directors.

Theater: "We have made the decision to close the theater after a long and difficult process," said the artistic director. "We have worked hard to keep the theater running, but it has become clear that it is no longer sustainable for us to continue." The decision was made after a series of meetings with the board of directors and the management team.

Advice

For students: "I am a big believer in the idea that education is the key to success," said the professor. "I tell my students all the time that they need to stay focused and work hard, and that success will come to them if they are willing to put in the effort." The professor shared some tips on how to succeed in college, including the importance of time management and the benefits of joining extracurricular activities.

In the workplace: "I believe that the key to success in the workplace is to be proactive and to take charge of your own career," said the CEO. "I tell my employees all the time that they need to be willing to take on new challenges and to be willing to learn and grow." The CEO shared some tips on how to succeed in the workplace, including the importance of networking and the benefits of taking on new challenges.

Advice for parents: "I believe that the most important thing that parents can do for their children is to support them and to encourage them to be confident," said the psychologist. "I tell parents all the time that they need to be willing to listen to their children and to be willing to work with them to find solutions to problems." The psychologist shared some tips on how to help children succeed, including the importance of setting realistic goals and the benefits of providing a supportive environment.

Advice for teachers: "I believe that the most important thing that teachers can do for their students is to be patient and to be understanding," said the educator. "I tell my students all the time that they need to be willing to work hard and to be willing to learn from their mistakes." The educator shared some tips on how to succeed in the classroom, including the importance of providing a supportive environment and the benefits of being patient.

Advice for athletes: "I believe that the most important thing that athletes can do for themselves is to be healthy and to be strong," said the trainer. "I tell my athletes all the time that they need to be willing to eat well and to be willing to exercise regularly." The trainer shared some tips on how to succeed on the field, including the importance of eating a healthy diet and the benefits of being strong.

Advice for coaches: "I believe that the most important thing that coaches can do for their teams is to be positive and to be supportive," said the coach. "I tell my players all the time that they need to be willing to work hard and to be willing to learn from their mistakes." The coach shared some tips on how to succeed on the field, including the importance of being positive and the benefits of being supportive.